As much as we love quick weekend getaways and domestic exploration, there's something to be said about taking a hop, skip, and jump across the pond to Europe. Known for its architecture, art, culture, and cuisine, Europe is home to dozens of destinations just waiting to be explored. But where will you start? We suggest picking one (or a few) of the most beautiful places in Europe and making an entire holiday out of it.

If you love the beach and being close to the sea, Positano, Mallorca, and Madeira are calling your name. If you prefer mountainous landscapes, the Dolomites, Schwangau, Germany, and Isle of Skye, Scotland, are all worth perusing. But that's just the beginning. Ahead, explore over two dozen of the most beautiful places in Europe. Whether you're hoping to book a luxurious villa vacation or load up your pack to trek across the continent, you're bound to find more than a few destinations worth adding to your itinerary.

Lake Como, Italy

Kirk Fisher

Lake Como is thought to be one of the most stunning lakes in the world. Frequented by celebrities, the luxury lake oasis stretches roughly 30 miles long, with small towns nestled along its shores. One of the most iconic is Moltrasio, where the world-famous Passalacqua Hotel resides. Another must-see? The Gates of Heaven at Hotel Villa Cipressi.
