II TRIDENTE, HOTEL POSEIDON

Il Tridente, is one of the most Instagrammable hot-spots in Positano. With its idyllic panoramic scene of the Mediterranean sea and breathtaking views of the Amalfi Coast.

The menu is infused with the Neapolitan culinary tradition as Chef Antonio Sorrentino and his team prepare dishes passed on from generations. Although the views from Il Tridente are breathtaking no matter the time of day, the Cocktail Bar and Restaurant perfectly capture the softly lit twinkly lights of the Positano cliff at night. At first glance, the newly revamped Cocktail Bar at Hotel Poseidon looks like your standard swanky hotel bar. Drink in your surroundings for just a second, however, and you'll soon notice the magic of Positano from the comfort of your setting. Perfect for aperitivo and after-dinner drinks, the Cocktail Bar oozes with breathing views of Positano and the deep blue ocean.

cio to mouthwatering buffalo mozzarella and local ricotta seasoned with fresh basil. The Paccheri with lobster, tomato concasse and asparagus powder is simply divine! The

The menu offers a delicious slice of Campania's history with a modern twist.

The vibe is akin to a relaxed-rooftop bar, with live music three times a week. The simple bite-size menu at the bar champions two distinct culinary pillars: seasonality and sustainability, with many of the ingredients sourced from local producers. The light bites are perfectly designed to match the great selection of cocktails and limoncellos.

freshness of the pasta beautifully and exquisitely complements the lobster sauce, as the flavours gently dance around with every bite!

For a magical evening, start off with a refreshing aperitivo at the pool terrace followed by dinner served beneath the orange and lemon trees on a romantic garden terrace of the Hotel Poseidon.

For a complete gastronomic experience, the Sommelier will suggest local and international wines to compliment your meal to enhance your taste buds. To finish off, we recommend going all-in with the homemade tiramisu and worry about the calories later! Apart from the fresh fish and meat options, Il Tridente also caters to vegetarians and vegans. After dinner, head over to the bar for more limoncello, it's open until 1 AM (it would be rude not to).
